

Holy Trinity Greek School of Dallas

Announcement

Certificate of Attainment in Modern Greek

We would like to inform you that Holy Trinity Greek School of Dallas is functioning as a testing center for the Certificate of Attainment in Modern Greek. The Certificate is equivalent to the English “Lower” and “Proficiency” diplomas of the Universities of Michigan and Cambridge.

The examination for the Certificate of Attainment in Greek is organized by the Center for the Greek Language of the Aristotelian University of Greece by order of the Greek Ministry of Education. The examination will take place at our school on Tuesday, May 10th, 2016. The examination will be both oral and written at six different levels of difficulty.

Successful candidates at each level will receive an official Certificate of Attainment in Modern Greek. The Certificate may be used for credit at Colleges and Universities. Also, the Certificate can be a valuable asset for those seeking employment with European or other International companies.

Candidates must express their interest to take a test to our school, by March 1st 2016, by providing the following:

1. The application form, bearing the candidate’s name, as it appears on valid ID (passport, driver’s license etc.)
2. The completed questionnaire (provided with application)
3. Certified copy of valid ID (passport, driver’s license etc.)
4. Check, payable to Holy Trinity Greek Church (memo: Greek Certificate).
Levels A1, A2 and B1 $100.00, levels B2, C1 and C2 $115.00.

Candidates may be tested at various levels, and should indicate which level they desire.

For those interested, preparatory classes are offered.

For more information, application forms, or inquiries, please contact the director of the school Efrosini Georgiadou at 972-618-1979 or e-mail at: efrosini@peoplepc.com
